- Nunavut MP Lori Idlout (NDP) is calling for $180M to end the water emergency in Iqaluit, in a letter dated 21 Jan to Infrastructure and Communities Minister Dominic Leblanc. No specifics provided on what the funds would be used for, but Mayor Kenny Bell recently stated that the city needs a new water source and treatment plant.
- Some residents have reported a return fuel smells in water.
- Although slight levels of hydrocarbons have been detected in the water, these levels are within an acceptable range.
- The City of Iqaluit is going ahead with its contingency plan, has shut down the water treatment plant, and activated the multi-tank bypass. Therefore, residents are advised to boil tap water prior to consumption. No timeline on when the water treatment plant may be back online.

CANADA UNITY CONVOY 2022 – PLANNED DEMONSTRATION (28-29 JAN)

- As of 26 Jan, organizers have expressed the intent for a peaceful event, which is consistent with what have been observed where the convoys have stopped so far.
- Social media reporting that extremists groups are calling for the planned protests to turn into a “U.S. January 6-esque attack on Ottawa”. Closely related groups have demonstrated interest in gaining access to Precinct buildings. The subject matter and circumstances of the demonstration are likely to attract individuals predisposed to ideologically motivated violent extremist (IMVE) action.
- “Slow roll” convoys at provincial and CAN/U.S. border crossings are expected over the next two weekends; such convoys will continue as long as the imposed mandates and restrictions remain in place.
 - In AB, truckers are being encouraged to block the Coutts port of entry (AB/Montana) on 28-29 Jan.
- Route (West, East and South) cards and timelines are available on organization’s website. All convoys plan to meet in Ottawa on 29 Jan.
- The convoy could possibly pose a threat to the physical security of the Parliamentary Precinct and is likely to cause significant disruptions to parliamentary operations. Disruptions expected in Ottawa include:
 - Protests outside 24 Sussex;
 - Blocking bridges and slowing traffic in general;
 - Shopping without masks;
 - Protests outside CBC News 181 Queen St (House of Commons offices co-located);
 - Protesting around and on Parliament Hill, including the Senate building.
- Freedom Convoy 2022 has raised over $5.9M in fundraising support; however, GoFundMe has temporarily frozen the funds until the fundraisers show a clear plan on how those these will be spent. The group stated the money raised will help registered truckers pay for fuel, lodging and food; remaining funds will be donated to a veterans association in Canada.
- INTERSECT indicates that the situation remains fluid and all NCR police agencies, including the City of Ottawa, are monitoring and coordinating a response NCR partners are planning for a range of risks, including counter demonstrations, demonstrations breaking off from the main group to incite disorder, trucks blocking intersections, etc.

[APG]

- In conjunction with the RCMP, the Ottawa Police Service will stand up a NCR command centre in order for all agencies to be in direct and real-time communication.

ASYLUM SEEKERS

- Reports of a renewed stream of migrants seeking refuge in Canada after a 20 month ban, lifted on November 21 2021.
- Increase in migrants are being reported at the Lacolle, QC port of entry.

- On 25 Jan, Canada ordered family members of diplomatic staff stationed in Ukraine to leave the country. This comes one day after the U.S., Britain, Germany and Australia announced similar steps.
- GAC has updated its travel guidance for Ukraine, advising Canadians to avoid non-essential travel due to ongoing Russian threats and military buildup in and around the country.
